

User Story

3 November 2019

1 Product:

As a user, I want to see available product, so that I can find my desire product.

1.1 Confirmation:

User can see photos of the product and can check the company level and the packaging.

An user can see product's market price.

Premium user can see the product price with the available discount.

If an user have a promo code then the user can apply the code and can see the discounted price.

User can see product's availability and basic info.

User can check the selected product review.

User can give review for the used product.

An user can request for the desired branded product to the website.

2 Search:

As a user, I want to search product so that I can find product with in a second.

2.1 Confirmation:

An user can search product by name.

An user can search product by brand.

An user can search product by category.

An user can search the most popular product.

An user can search the product starting from the lower price.

An user can search product by price range to purchase product within his/her budget.

An user can search product by QR code.

An user get 'product not found' message if the searching product is unavailable or not matched.